

Rho Kappa Honor Society

Application for Membership

Rho Kappa National Social Studies Honor Society (RKHS) is an organization for young people in their Junior or Senior year of high school who show exemplary interest in the social sciences. RKHS is a member of the Rho Kappa National Social Studies Honor Society program established by the National Council for the Social Studies, but adheres to the accepted rules and regulations of all Timberlane Regional High School academic honor societies.

Through projects and events, RKHS members develop leadership skills and learn the value of hard work. They also help to improve their local and school communities by working to promote and preserve history and the academic study of history.

If accepted, members will be required to attend bi-weekly meetings, attend and participate in various RKHS activities including, but not limited to Spirit Week, National History Day, and Old Homes Day. Members of RKHS are also members of the Rho Kappa National Social Studies Honor Society and are responsible for all duties related due to that association.

Instructions:

1. Have two teachers/adult sponsors whom you have or have had fill out the teacher nomination form. Their signature will serve as testimony to the applicant's completion of the necessary credit requirement, character, and dedication to Social Studies courses. At least one MUST be a Social Studies teacher at TRHS.
2. Write a one-page essay that answers the following question: "What deceased historic person would you want to have lunch with? What would you discuss? What would you order? Who will pay?"
3. Fill out and complete the following information and return the COMPLETED (application and essay) application to the folder in the Guidance Office ONLY by April 18, 2018.
4. The Guidance Office will attach an unofficial transcript highlighting your historical GPA and all social studies classes that you have taken. Members are required to have a minimum GPA of 3.5 and to have completed 4 credits of Social Studies classes upon graduation. Seniors must be enrolled in a full credit of social studies their senior year.
5. Any current member re-applying must attach their Service Logs from the previous year.
